AN ORDINANCE

Creating the Office of Fire Marshal, Prescribing the Buties Thereof, Providing for its Maintenance and Prescribing Penalties for Violations.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF EL PASO:
Section 1. The office of Fire Marshal is hereby created. Such office shall be independent of other city departments, the Fire Marshal reporting directly to independent of other city departments, the Fire Marshal reporting directly to the Mayor and City Council. Such of-fice shall be filled by appointment by the Mayor, by and with the consent of the City Council, within ten days after this ordinance shall take effect. The said Fire Marshal shall be properly qualified for the duties of his office (and shall be removed only for cause). He shall receive an annual salary of 1200.00 dollars, payable in monthly installments, as full compensation for his services.

Section 2. The Fire Marshal shall investigate the cause, origin and circumstances of every fire occurring within the City of El Paso, by which property has been destroyed or damaged, and shall especially make investigation as to whether such fire was the result of excelerances or design. Such investigation shall be begun within twenty-four hours, not including Sunday, of the occurrence of such fire. The Fire Marshal shall keep in his office a record of all fires occurring within the city, together with all facts, statistics and circumstances, including the origin of the fires and the amount of the loss, which may be determined by the investigation required by this ordinance. ion required by this ordinance, record shall at all times be open to public inspection.

Section 3. The Fire Marshal when in his opinion further investigation is necessary, shall take or cause to be taken the testimony on oath, of all persons supposed to be cognizant of any facts or to have means of knowledge in relation to the matter as to which an examination to the matter as the ma ination is berein required to be made, and shall cause the same to be reduced to writing; and if he shall be of the opinion that there is evidence sufficient to charge any person with the crime of arsen, or with the attempt to commit the crime of arsen, or with the attempt to commit the crime of arsen, or of conspiracy to defrand, or criminal conduct, in connection with such fire, he shall cause such person to be arrested and charged with such offense or either of them, and shall furnish to the proper prosecuting with such offense of either of them, and full furnish to the proper prosecuting informer all such evidence, together with the names of witnesses and all of the information obtained by him, in-inding a copy of all pertinent and matestimony taken in the case. Section 4. The rive Marsual Shall have the nower to summon and compel the atlendance of witnesses before him to testify in relation to any matter which is by the provisions of this ordinarce a subject of inquiry and investigated on, and may require the production of any book, paper or document deemed pertinent thereto. The said Fire Mar-shal is hereby authorized and empow-ered to administer oath and affirmations to any persons appearing as wit-nesses before him, and false swearing in any matter or proceeding aforesaid shall be perjury and shall be punished as such. Any witness who refuses to be sworn or who refuses to testify or who disobers any lawful order of sald Fire Marshal, or who falls or refuses to produce any book, paper or document teaching any matter under examina-tion, or who is guilty of any contemptu-cess conduct after being summoned to give testimony in relation to any mat-ter under investigation as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemean-

Merchal to make complaint against said person or person; so refusing to com-ply with the summons or order of said Fire Marshal before any justice of the pence, police ungistrate or in any court of record within the city, and upon the filing of such complaint, such cause shall proceed in the same manner as other criminal cases and upon convicother eriminal cases and upon conviction of any such person guilty of a riolation of the provisions of this ordinance, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or imprisonment for not exceeding days; Provided, however, that any person so convicted shall have the right of appeal. All investigations held by or under the direction of the Fire Marshall may, in his discretion, be private, and persons other than those required and persons other than those required to be present may be excluded from the place where such investigation is held, and wilnesses may be kept separate and apart from each other and not rate and apart from each other and not allowed to communicate with each other until they have been examined. Section 5 The Fire Marshal shall have the authority at all times of day or night, in the performance of the duties imposed upon him by the provisions of this ordinance, so enter upon and examine any building or premises where any fire has occurred, and other buildings and premises adjoining or near the same.

Section 6. The Fire Marshal, upon-complaint of any person having an in-terest in any building or property adia-cent, and without any complaint, shall have a right at all reasonable hours, for the purpose of examination to en-ter into and upon all buildings and premises within the city, and it shall be his duty, quarierly or more often, to enter upon and make or cause to be entered upon and make, a thorough oxentered upon and made, a thorough exentered upon and made, a thorough ex-amination of all mercantile, manufac-turing and public buildings, together with the premises belonging thereto, Whenever he shall find any building or other structure which for want of repair, or by reason of age or dilapi-dated condition, or for any cause, is especially liable to fire, and which is so simuted as to endanger other buildings. especially liable to fire, and which is so a limited as to endanger other buildings or property or so occupied that fire would endanger persons or property therein, and whenever he shall find an improper or defigerous arrangement of limited and l improper or dangerous arrangement of stave, ranges, furnaces or other heating appliances of any kind whatsoever, including chimneys, flues and pipes, with which the same may be connected, or a dangerous arrangement of lighting devices or systems, or a dangerous or unlawful storage of explosives, compounds, petroleum gasoline, kerosene, dangerous chemicals, vegetable products, ashes, combustibles, inflammable and refuse materials, or other conditions which in his opinion may be dangerous in character or liable to expension of the conditions which in his opinion may be dangerous in character or liable to expension. and refuse materials, or other condi-tions which in his opinion may be dan-gerous in character or liable to cause or promote fire or create conditions dangerous to the firemen or occupants, he shall order the same to be removed or remedied, and such order shall be forthwith compiled with by the owner or occupant of said building or prem-ises: Provided, however, that if the said owner or occupant deems himself augureved by such order, he may, with in five (5) days, appeal to the Mayor, who shall investigate the cause of the compilent, and unless by his authority the order is revoked, such order shall remain in force and be forthwith com-piled with by said owner or occupant.
